

Guest Presentation: Science and Technology Policy course at the Harris School of Public Policy, University of Chicago

From: Don Lamb mailto:[lamb@oddjob.uchicago.edu]

Sent: Friday, June 06, 2014 10:29 AM

To: Cappy Kidd

Subject: Thank you!

Dear Cappy,

Thank you for the terrific presentation you gave yesterday afternoon in the Science and Technology Policy course at the Harris School. What you told them about energy efficiency issues and solutions in residential and commercial was truly fascinating, and your lively presentation of these topics (complete with personal stories) made the information you presented memorable. It was clear that the students loved your presentation.

With warm best wishes, Don

*****

* Don Q. Lamb		*
* Robert A. Millikan Distinguished Service Professor		*
* Director, Flash Center for Computational Science		*
* Department of Astronomy and Astrophysics		*
* and the Enrico Fermi Institute
* University of Chicago	(773) 702-7194 (Office)	*
* 5747 South Ellis Avenue	(773) 834-3230 (FAX)	*
* Chicago, IL 60637	lamb@oddjob.uchicago.edu	*